The following lefters have been received recently:

Camp Upton, March 28, 1918.

Dear Red Cross Friends: Just a line to thank you for the sweater and other things which I received from you before coming to camp. I think a whole lot of my sweater, but the scarf is the most useful as I have to go out on guard duty quite often and the scarf gives good service for guard duty. Once more, thanking you for your kind gift, I remain.
